

Dr Susan Tresman — Deputy Lay Member (general) with a Primary Care focus

Sue joined NHS Guildford and Waverley Clinical Commissioning Group as a Lay Member in April 2012. Previously, she was a Senior Lecturer at the Open University and Director of the MSc in Science Programme and Student Retention Programme and held a number of visiting chairs in Universities in UK, Europe and South Africa followed by a period as CEO of the British Dyslexia Association. From 2006 until 2012, she was CEO and Company Secretary of Grafham Grange Special Educational Trust and Chair of the National Association of independent schools and non maintained special schools in 2011/12.

Her qualifications include PhD, BSc, PGCE (Cantab/Distinction). She is highly qualified (HESDA Top Management Programme) in leadership for effective change and has a track record of delivering and managing change in politically sensitive environments. In addition, Sue has deployed strong influencing skills to challenge and change institutional cultures in her various leadership roles.