

Phelim Brady MBE — Lay Member: Patient and Public Engagement Vice Chair Lay

Before retirement, Phelim worked for over twenty years as a senior manager in further and higher education. Before that, he was a lecturer in sociology and for a few years in the late sixties worked in advertising. He has also been a stakeholder and public governor of Frimley Park Hospital NHS Foundation Trust.

Phelim has been a member of the UK universities' Joint Information Systems Committee (RSC) board, chair of Eagle Radio's North East Hampshire Consultative Committee, a school governor and has held various other voluntary positions.
