

Mark Byrne — Deputy Lay Member General (Strategic Finance)*

Mark Byrne is the founder of RLVCP - an investment and advisory business focusing on the UK leisure, health and technology sectors. Mark has held leadership or advisory roles with a number of high growth businesses including Repknight, StreetBees, Von Bismark & Lets Get Checked. Mark is currently lay chair of the Appointment Advisory committee for Cambridge University NHS Hospitals Trust and was previously a Royal College of Physicians JAG assessor for GI Endoscopy.

Previously Mark was head of UK R&D Tax Solutions Practice & Senior Corporate Finance Director with FTI Consulting in London. He was also Head of R&D Tax Services for Mazars, Ireland having first practiced in International Corporate tax with Deloitte and BDO in Dublin. Mark has particular expertise in financing complex international R&D investment projects and is a past member of the HM Treasury R&D working group. Mark was recognised as a 2014 “Future Leader” by the Irish Government & The Irish International Business Network.

Mark is married and lives in the Surrey Hills.

* Shared role for Surrey Heartlands CCGs

Back to Governing Body and CCG Structure